Ms. Selberg: The Attorney General of Texas informed my Federal Judge that on or about November 21, 2008 they had sent me some legal mail. As they did so, Special Mail would have come to my door. I informed the Judge that I had not received no legal mail from the Attorney General, New, the Judge ordered that I be given a copy of that legal mail through certified mail which I got today. I am going to let the Judge know the Bureau of Prisons will get our Yolanda Saldiana, No: 733126 Unit: CM Living Quarters: ASA1-22 Work Assignment: [initials]

Legal mail through your employees. If the Attorney General, California, of Service, says they mailed me legal mail, it got lost between them, you and me. I am negotiating from you and Susan Applicant stating whether or not I received legal mail on or about November 21, 2008, a day later or so. If you cannot give me an Applicant then please answer my 7-605
which then I will submit them to the Judge because in the future I will be getting

I Maria Elida Saldivar, on June 27th, 2003 went to the Corpus Christi Nueces County District Clerk to obtain Documents, copies of judgment, sentence and verdict on the case of Yolanda Saldivar V. The State of Texas. I also asked about the status of Yolanda Saldivar's 11.07 application filed on September 2000. Mr. James D Rosenkild told me the following: he showed me a box that was on the floor that contained Yolanda's application and said the appeal would take about two to three years for anyone to look at the appeal or it just might be ignored.
